New York State Conference Membership

The most recent membership information was obtained from Katherine Isaac of the AAUP National Office on October 7, 2008. The figures show that the New York State Conference currently has 4,935 members, which represents a 1.6 percent decline from 5,015 members in Spring 2008. There are a total of 170 institutions in New York State which have AAUP members and there are 50 chapters that have a membership of seven or more. Currently, eleven of the chapters are collective bargaining chapters with a total of 3,548 members, a 1.2 percent decrease from 3,592 members that were reported by the National Office last spring.

Observations

It is of interest to note that, since April 2008, 20 chapters showed an increase in membership, 13 chapters experienced a decline in membership, and 17 chapters maintained the same membership. Most of the chapters experienced changes in membership that were negligible. However, there were a few chapters where the changes were significant: Hofstra University - Others Chapter experienced a 126% increase from 23 to 52; Yeshiva Chapter membership increased 89% from 18 to 34; NYU declined 12.5% from 104 to 91; St. John’s declined 34% from 151 to 99; and St. John’s-Others also declined 11.5% from 61 to 54.

In addition, AAUP members without affiliation declined 73% from 112 to 30.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathleen Maurer Smith
 Vice President, NY State Chapter - AAUP
